

WEEKLY NEWS AND MATCH BULLETIN
Season 2011/12 No 27 :- 13th February 2012

TWO Ryman League games beat the big freeze on Saturday, both on the Sussex coast where Bognor and Whitehawk were able to stage the first league matches to take place this month. Other clubs were frustrated after brave efforts to defeat the conditions, such as Margate (pictured above by Don Walker), where fans helped to clear all the snow from the pitch on Friday only for the game to fall victim to below-zero temperatures on Saturday.

ALL THE ACTION

By Peter Butcher – Ryman League Communications Administrator

GOOD old Sussex by the sea: the words of the old song were entirely appropriate on Saturday when Ryman South matches at Bognor and Whitehawk went ahead to avert the league's second successive blank Saturday.

It was a remarkable effort by both clubs. Although the Sussex coast escaped the recent snow, the temperature was as low as ten below zero at nine o'clock on Saturday morning.

It turned out to be Bognor's day as their somewhat laboured 2-0 home win over Merstham opened up a five-point lead at the top of the table.

Midtable Merstham had romped to a 4-0 victory at promotion-chasing Folkestone in their previous outing and they showed how they had done it with some stylish football in the first half.

But they were without the hat-trick hero of that game, Harry Ottaway, who was unwell, and that contributed to their failure to turn their classy play into goals.

Their other problem was the outstanding form of long-serving Bognor keeper Craig Stoner, who pulled off superb saves to deny Roscoe Dsane, twice, and Liam Wright.

Merstham also went close when a free-kick by Fabio Saravia clipped the top of the bar.

Bognor hardly managed a coherent attack in the first half but they stole the lead in the 41st minute when, after Steve Harper's shot had been deflected wide, James Crane volleyed home from the corner, making an awkward task look very simple.

Stoner foiled Dsane again before the break and Merstham never recovered.

Ashley Robinson, who replaced Crane as Bognor rejigged their formation at half-time, clinched the points with a low, swerving 30-yard shot in the 56th minute.

Harper should have added a third when he headed wide from close range.

Bognor were one of the sides who have lost three points now that Croydon Athletic's results have been deleted from the table.

Indeed, seven of the top eight have done so, something of a bonus for Dulwich who had not played Athletic before the club withdrew from the league.

That meant that Dulwich moved into second place ahead of Whitehawk, who were unable to reclaim the position on Saturday as they were held to a 1-1 home draw by sixth-placed Worthing.

In a contest good enough to make the hard work that enabled it to go ahead worthwhile, James Fraser put Hawks ahead from a cross by Jerahl Hughes after 21 minutes.

Ryan McBride replied for Rebels five minutes after the interval, netting his 18th goal of the season from the rebound after Hawks keeper Chris Winterton parried a shot from Mike Hockett.

It was a predictably tight contest between teams who know each other well; indeed, more than half the players on show were playing against one of their previous clubs.

The team to suffer most in the revised table are Whyteleafe.

They have lost three points while the side who were above them, Burgess Hill, were held to a draw by Croydon and have thus dropped only one point.

That leaves Whyteleafe nine points adrift of safety in what is now the sole relegation place.
