Season 2011/12 No 30 :- 5th March 2012

HORNCHURCH forward Fola Orilonishe turns a somersault after scoring their second goal in Saturday's 2-0 home victory over Concord, a result which ended Concord's six-match winning run and put Urchins within three points of Ryman Premier leaders Billericay with two matches in hand. ALL THE ACTION

By Peter Butcher – Ryman League Communications Administrator

THERE'S only one place to start the Ryman Premier round-up this week, and that's at the bottom where Horsham's third manager of the season, Simon Colbran, achieved at the first attempt something that had eluded both his predecessors: a home league victory.

Rock-bottom Hornets, whose last three-point haul came at Hornchurch on August 27, beat Tooting 2-0 at Gorings Mead on Saturday.

Tony Nwachukwu put them ahead after 32 minutes and the Terrors, whose own relegation fears deepened, rarely threatened to recover before Ray Freeman clinched the points in added time.

It may be too late for Horsham to beat the drop but they will now fancy their chances of avoiding the wooden spoon.

They are within four points of Aveley, whom they host on Tuesday.

That victory in August was Horsham's second away success of opening week and Hornchurch's second home defeat: as it turned out, hardly a reliable pointer to future form.

While Horsham have struggled, Urchins are now strongly placed to capture the title after a 2-0 home win over in-form Concord.

The visitors, seeking their seventh successive league victory started strongly and Steve King hit the bar before the reliable Martin Tuohy gave the hosts a 20th-minute lead with his 20th league goal.

Urchins had skipper Elliot Styles dismissed in the 33rd minute for allegedly striking his opposite number Nicky Cowley.

But they went further ahead with a volley from Fola Orilonishe three minutes after half-time and held on without too much trouble.

Their home form before Christmas was poor but since the turn of the year they have taken 13 points from five games on their own turf and have yet to concede a goal.

Hornchurch are three points behind leaders Billericay with two games in hand after their Essex rivals were held to a 1-1 draw at Wealdstone.

The significant action came early, with Richard Jolly putting Stones ahead in the fourth minute, his 20th league goal, and Glenn Poole replying for Billericay three minutes later.

Billericay came closest to breaking the deadlock after that when Jay May hit the bar.

Lowestoft maintained their faltering challenge with a home win over lowly Aveley. But they had to wait until the 88th minute for the only goal of the game and then it came via a lucky deflection off Joe Francis.

That late goal also denied Bury third place. They are two points behind the Trawlerboys after a 2-1 home win over Lewes.

Headed goals by Sam Reed in the 36th minute and Tom Bullard in the 47th earned them the points. Lewes, rapidly sliding out of play-off contention, replied through Harry Harding in the 52nd minute but could do no more.

Cray are back in the top five after a 1-0 home win over Hastings. It started badly for the visitors when keeper Matt Armstrong-Ford fell ill and had to be replaced by defender Ross Sutton.

It looked as if it might be a long afternoon for the stand-in when Jack Clark fired a shot against the bar in the first minute, but Cray made hard work of it and had to settle for a lone 18th-minute goal from Chris Saunders.

Indeed, it took a goalline clearance by former Hastings manager Tony Dolby to deny Zac Attwood a late equaliser.

Hendon took the lead through Carl McCluskey nine minutes before the interval at Canvey but were eventually beaten 3-1 as the hosts moved up to seventh, five points short of a play-off slot.

Rob King was injured as he netted the equaliser in the 54th minute but his replacement, Bradley Woods-Garness, put Canvey ahead on 66 minutes and added an insurance goal in added time. Ashley Dumas had missed an earlier chance to make it 3-1 when his penalty was saved.

Kingstonian climbed to eighth to keep their hopes alive. Aaron Goode's superb solo goal on 58 minutes was all they needed to inflict Carshalton's ninth home defeat of the season. Goode almost turned from hero to villain when he conceded a penalty, but Paul Vines shot wide.

There was another crucial game in the relegation battle at Leatherhead, where 19th-placed Tanners beat Harrow 2-0 to move within a point of them.

Vernon Francis put them ahead on the half-hour and hit the bar shortly afterwards. Newly-arrived substitute Charlie Holness finished off great work by Tommy Hutchings to double the lead with 20 minutes left, leaving Harrow to be consoled by the fact that they have played two fewer games than their hosts.

There was a frantic start at Wingate, where Leon Smith's second-minute header for the home side did no more than put them on terms after Tom Bradbrook had given Margate the lead inside 30 seconds.

Gaz Dauti's 39th-minute goal seemed to have won it for Wingate, but the visitors snatched a 2-2 draw with a last-minute Dan Stubbs penalty.

Former Margate striker Kwesi Appiah, still the division's top scorer with 22 goals, made the Crystal Palace bench for the first time yesterday, though his services were not needed in the 1-0 home win over Peterborough.

A Sam Higgins hat-trick led East Thurrock to a 4-2 home victory over Met Police, another side whose play-off challenge is fading.

He opened the scoring on seven minutes but the Met came back strongly. Ty Smith equalised with a 25th-minute free-kick and Jay Lovett put the visitors ahead three minutes later.

A Higgins penalty squared matters again in the 57th minute, Marc Gorbell put Rocks ahead midway through the half and Higgins netted his third in the last minute.

North

LEISTON doubled their lead to four points with a 1-0 victory at Brentwood on Saturday while Enfield Town were being held to a 3-3 home draw by Sudbury.

It was a tight game at Brentwood, settled by a 65th-minute goal by Rhys Henry who followed up after his first shot was saved by Elliott Justham.

Enfield, meanwhile, found themselves 2-0 down in seven minutes as James Baker and Nathan Clarke struck for Sudbury. The action-packed start continued as Michael Ewang pulled one back in the eighth minute.

That was it until the end of the first half, when Jay Siva's free-kick levelled the scores.

Adam Wallace put the hosts ahead for the first time ten minutes after the break but a 90th-minute strike by Daniel Emmanuel meant that Enfield dropped their first points at their new ground after nine successive victories.

Noel Imber had to pull off two excellent saves in added time to prevent Sudbury snatching victory.

Needham Market are seven points further back in third place but eight points clear of the rest of the field after their 4-2 win at Thamesmead, which took their league-leading goal tally to 88.

The home side took an early lead with an Ashley Probets free-kick but Ollie Fenn equalised and two goals in five minutes later in the half, from Danny Bloomfield and Lee McGlone, put the visitors in command.

Theo Fairweather-Johnson gave the hosts new hope in the 55th minute but Bloomfield restored the two-goal gap in the 72nd minute, making it the second time in five days that Thamesmead had conceded four at home.

The six teams battling for fourth and fifth places were covered by a single point before play started, and none of them managed a win.

Harlow edged up to fourth despite being held to a 1-1 home draw by Waltham Abbey. Ayrton Coley's curling shot gave the Abbotts the lead after 25 minutes but they had to hang on frantically after David Cowley's 56th-minute equaliser.

Sudbury's draw lifted them to fifth place while Brentwood dropped to sixth. Redbridge and Tilbury, who drew 1-1, each moved up one place, to seventh and eighth respectively.

Dockers thought they had won it after Alex Read netted with 20 minutes left, but a James Robinson cross was turned into his own net by Connor Mead three minutes into added time to save the Motormen.

Grays were the only losers in the group, and they fell back to ninth after a surprise 3-2 defeat at Soham, who had taken only one point from eight games in 2012.

Joao Carlos scored in the 40th minute to give Grays some reward for dominating the first half, but things changed when Paul Olima was sent off.

Soham equalised through Michael Simpson in the 73rd minute and Scott Carter put them ahead eight minutes later.

A long-range strike by Paul Jones made it 3-1 immediately after that, and although Nathan Gordon quickly pulled one back for the ten men Soham held out.

All this made it a good day for Potters Bar, who powered to a 3-0 victory at Maldon and are now within four points of a place-off place.

Elvis Balic broke the deadlock seven minutes after the interval and the league's hottest marksman of the moment, James Gershfield, added two more to take his haul to 11 in eight games since the turn of the year.

Ilford are off the bottom after their 3-2 home win over Cheshunt, the first game in charge of the Ambers for former Wingate assistant manager Tony Faulkner.

His spell in charge got off to a miserable start as an own goal by keeper Glenn Williamson and a penalty by Rob Carter put Ilford two up in 18 minutes.

Andrew West reduced the arrears just after the half-hour and Wes Pullen levelled it five minutes into the second half, only for Dan Abioye to win it for the Foxes in the 65th minute.

Ilford move above Ware on goal difference after the Hertfordshire club were beaten 5-2 at Chatham.

The turning point came in the 70th minute when Ware defender Lewis Rolfe was sent off for a foul on Chris Hill.

The offence also led to a penalty, which Lee Hales converted to put the Chats 3-2 up. Glenn Tilley and Jack Jeffery added further goals.

Ware had scored five minutes from either end of the first half through Ricci Crace and Aime Blessing. In between their goals, Tilley and Lloyd Blackman netted for the hosts.

Great Wakering collected a valuable point from a goalless home draw with Heybridge and are two points above the bottom pair. It could have been better still: Dan Williams hit a Heybridge post near the end.

Goals six minutes before and after the interval gave Romford a 2-0 win at home to Waltham Forest. Chris Sullivan and Kurt Smith were the marksmen, and Forest could not respond even after the hosts were reduced to ten men for the last 15 minutes by Abs Seymour's red card.

South

DULWICH closed to within one point of leaders Bognor with a 3-1 home win over Worthing on Saturday.

Frankie Sawyer's sixth-minute opener for the hosts was answered by Ryan McBride on 24 minutes as Rebels looked to boost their own promotion hopes.

It stayed all square until the 70th minute, when Glen Woodburn's foul on Ishmail Kamara yielded a penalty which Kevin James converted. Omarr Lawson added the clincher seven minutes later.

Bognor, meanwhile, were held to a 1-1 home draw by Folkestone, who themselves evicted Worthing from fifth place.

Stuart King put the Kent side ahead a minute before the interval and Ashley Robinson headed the equaliser in the 52nd minute.

Darren Smith almost snatched victory in the closing stages, but the crossbar preserved Bognor's unbeaten home record.

Bognor have a game in hand over Dulwich, as do Whitehawk who are three points behind them. Hawks were involved in a fierce battle at Hythe which looked destined to end scoreless until substitute Lee Newman grabbed a 90th-minute winner for the Brighton side.

Maidstone remain fourth despite their 1-0 defeat at Ramsgate.

Teenage goalkeeper Shannon Harris was Rams' hero. Taking over from the injured Danny Twyman just before half-time, he made several top-class saves to ensure that Ian Pulman's goal after 58 minutes was the decider.

Godalming, eight points behind Maidstone with three games in hand, will feel they are still very much in the picture after Darren Wheeler's penalty on the half-hour was enough for a 1-0 victory at Faversham.

There was a fourth 1-0 scoreline at Merstham, where Roscoe Dsane scored after 27 minutes to account for visiting Walton Casuals, and no goals at all at Sittingbourne for whom it was the fifth such result of the season. Bottom club Whyteleafe were the visitors.

Only one side will be relegated from this division and Leafe are eight points adrift.

Burgess Hill moved up a place with their 1-0 victory at Eastbourne on Friday, the goal coming from Pat Harding in the last minute, but dropped back to 20th spot the following afternoon as Whitstable twice came from behind before beating Chipstead 3-2.

Jason Goodchild put the visitors in front with an early penalty, with James Pinnock replying in the 24th minute.

Matt York headed Chips back into the lead soon after the interval but Scott Heard made it

2-2 in the 57th minute and Laurence Harvey thumped the winner with 17 minutes left.

Crawley Down won by the same margin at Corinthian-Casuals but had to come from 2-0 down after Glenn Boosey struck in the tenth minute and Jamie Byatt added another just before the half-hour mark.

Luke Blewden pulled one back in the 33rd minute and the Anvils went on to win it with two goals in three minutes midway through the second half, from Blewden and Jamie Cade.

Casuals had Byron Brown sent off near the end.
