ALL THE ACTION

Premier

NO HORNCHURCH substitute had scored a league goal since October. But Leon McKenzie and Michael Spencer made up for it yesterday, stepping off the bench to fire the goals which gave Urchins a 2-1 home victory over Lowestoft in the Ryman Premier play-off final.

The first 90 minutes were as tight as expected in front of a crowd of 1,411; both teams had finished the league season on 83 points. Defences were generally on top and chances were at a premium.

The hosts had the majority of possession in the first half but the clear chances fell to Lowestoft. Joe Francis headed over from close range and Chris Henderson broke clear only for his low shot to be kicked away by keeper Joe Woolley.

The game began to open up in the last 20 minutes and Lubo Guentchev twice struck the Hornchurch bar from 20-yard range while at the other end Andy Reynolds - who had not been expected to play because of injury - pulled off a double point-blank save from Carl Rook.

In the 90th minute Frankie Curley put a powerful header straight into the arms of Reynolds, and in the final minute of added time Reynolds did well to tip over another Curley header and force an extra 30 minutes.

McKenzie had replaced Rook during added time and it was he who broke the deadlock four minutes into extra time, firing home when an attempt to block a cross teed the ball up nicely for him.

Woolley tipped over a fierce shot by Scott Mitchell as the Trawlerboys tried to respond and they levelled it in the last minute of the first period when Curley conceded a penalty and Dean Sinclair, whose spot-kick deep into added time had won the semi-final, again made no mistake.

Mitchell thought he had given Lowestoft the lead in the 115th minute but Woolley somehow flung himself to his right to claw away the goalbound header.

A penalty shoot-out looked inevitable but Spencer, making his 150th appearance for Hornchurch, had other ideas. He had replaced Andy Tomlinson near the end of the first extra period and on 119 minutes he found himself in space on the left of the box before drilling his shot wide of Reynolds into the far corner.

Henderson had a chance to save the day for the visitors but he sliced his effort well wide and Urchins were soon stepping up to receive the trophy from League Chairman Alan Turvey.

The result meant that, for the first time since the league introduced play-offs, all three finals were won by the side that finished runners-up in the league.

Hornchurch will be playing in Conference South for the second time. They took part in the inaugural 2004-05 campaign but off-field problems forced them to withdraw at the end of the season. For Lowestoft it was a second successive defeat in the play-off final.

North

A HEADER by Walid Matata in the 17th minute made the difference as Enfield Town beat Needham Market 1-0 in Sunday's Ryman North play-off final.

Needham seemed somewhat unlucky to have a penalty claim and a goal disallowed as Town, founded as recently as June 2001, reached the Premier Division for the first time in front of 817 at the QE2 Stadium.

It was a fitting way to end what had already been a memorable season for the club, who acquired a ground of their own for the first time when they moved into the stadium in November.

The game itself was somewhat flat by the standards of most Ryman play-off games, perhaps because delays caused by last week's rain meant that Enfield had played their semi-final only on Thursday and Needham's was as recently as Friday.

Both semi-finals had been gruelling extra-time affairs and Enfield's had gone to a penalty shoot-out.

That match was covered in our last bulletin: Needham reached the final with a thrilling 4-3 victory at Tilbury.

It was Tilbury who scored first through skipper Gary Henty in the sixth minute and they should have stretched their lead before Sam Newson equalised with a penalty three minutes before half-time.

Substitute Duane Wright headed Needham into a 72nd-minute lead, from Newson's cross, a few moments after entering the fray but Eljay Worrell made it 2-2 13 minutes into what proved to be almost 18 minutes of added time, due to a succession of injuries.

Jack West put Tilbury ahead again five minutes into extra time but then it was over to Newson, who had scored just one goal, a penalty, in 15 previous games since a six-week injury absence.

He netted his 32nd goal of the season in the 104th minute to make it 3-3 and won it with his 33rd in the 120th minute, also completing his hat-trick.

South

BOGNOR made up for their bitter disappointment of a year earlier, when they missed the title by a single goal and lost at home to Dulwich in the play-off semi-final, by beating the same opponents in the Ryman South final to regain Premier status after a two-year absence.

Centre-back Stuart Axten headed the goal for Rocks from a 17th-minute corner in front of a Nyewood Lane crowd of 2,011, the biggest for any Ryman League game this season.

Bognor's other hero was keeper Craig Stoner.

He dived to push away a second-half penalty by Sanchez Ming to follow up his decisive save in the penalty shoot-out against Godalming in the semi-final.
