THE DIADORA FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Diadora Football League as we know it today was originally born over 80 years ago when three men of vision saw the need in the London area for a really strong amateur league. Those men, Tom Kirkup for many years Secretary of the London F.A., George Clarke, Hon. Treasurer of Ilford F.C. and Frank Evans, Hon. Secretary of Clapton F.C. met and sent out invitations to six clubs to attend a meeting at the Winchester Hotel in Old Broad Street to informally discuss the subject.

The meeting met with enthusiasm and soon the representatives had persuaded their committees of the value of such a competition. The late Harry Huband was approached to become Hon. Secretary and the Isthmian League was officially formed on March 8th. 1905 with Lord Kinnaird as President and Percy Timbs as chairman.

The six clubs that formed the League on that inaugural season were London Caledonians, Clapton, the Casuals, Civil Service, Ealing and Ilford. London Caledonians were the first winners and Clapton were runners-up and it wasn't long before the League started an expansion programme which in due course was to lead to the present set-up of 86 clubs this season in four separate divisions.

Personalities in those early days were all important, and no more so than Henry Huband who was Hon. Secretary and Treasurer for the first thirty years until 1935 and then President until his death in 1952. During those years, the Isthmian League as far as the South of England was concerned also had a vice-like grip on the Amateur Cup with too many to name winners and finalists drawn from its ranks.

The League can also boast two clubs who have gone on to become members of the Football League, although in both cases they had long since shed their Amateur mantle. Wimbledon joined the Isthmian ranks in 1921 and were members until 1964. Maidstone United one of the Football League's newest recruits had a much shorter stay. They joined the league in 1959 and stayed until 1971, but the knowledge they gained during those years would have stood them in good stead on their upward climb.

The Isthmian League under the Chairmanship of Barry East first embraced professionalism and sponsorship in the mid 70's when Rothmans, Berger, and Servowarm all took turn at being the league's main sponsor. It was during these years that the present management structure under the guiding hand of current Chairman and Managing Director Alan Turvey transformed the league from two to four divisions and the highly successful sponsorship of Vauxhall Motors was obtained. The league enjoyed two three year sponsorship agreements which were a most attractive and rewarding package for all parties concerned.

It is during the past decade that the league has also really emerged from the "amateur" tag that it once had, and now plays a full part each year in the pyramid of football where it provides clubs with both a platform to rise from and a in the case of clubs in lower leagues a target of membership to aim at.

In recent years, member clubs, Southall reached the Final of the F.A. Challenge Vase, whilst Yeading went one step better and won the competition in 1990.

This season the Diadora sponsorship has commenced with the Italian Sportswear company signing an initial two year agreement with the Isthmian Football League Limited.

Introducing

Sutton United came into being in 1898 after a meeting held at the Robin Hood Hotel between two local clubs, Sutton Association and Sutton Guild Rovers. The early years were chequered, with several home grounds tried, and fluctuating fortunes were met in junior leagues before the club gained senior status. The move to the Borough Sports Ground in Gander Green Lane, a gift to the people of Sutton from Sir Thomas Wall, helped cement the club's standing and in 1928 they won their first major honour, the Athenian League.

The 1930's were difficult times, and Sutton's future was for a while threatened, but a door to door collection helped pull the club back from the brink, and they again grew in stature. Either side of the Second War U's were one of the top amateur sides in the country, winning the Athenian League for a second time in 1946, and finishing runners-up a year later.

More success did not follow until the late 1950's when a third championship triumph was coupled with the club's first ever London Senior Cup win in 1958.

The arrival of first George Smith and then Sid Cann, led to a period of consistent achievement, with the club appearing for the first time at Wembley in 1963, losing 4-2 to Wimbledon in the Amateur Cup Final. That year they also moved into the Isthmian League, lifting the title in 1967 and finishing runners-up a year later. In 1969 they made their second Wembley appearance, again losing, this time to North Shields 2-0. The following year the club achieved national acclaim, playing Leeds in the fourth round of the FA Cup.

The break-up of this successful side led to a spell of less auspicious performances, but the appointment of Keith Blunt as manager in 1977 heralded new glories. In 1979 the club became the only winners of the Anglo Italian Semi-Pro tournament, whilst in 1981 they made a third trip to Wembley losing to Bishop's Stortford in the FA Trophy Final.

By then, Mr. Blunt had departed to Sweden, to be replaced by his assistant, Barrie Williams and he led the side throughout their most recent golden period. They set a record of six consecutive Surrey Senior Cup Final appearances and won the Isthmian League in both 1985 and 1986, the second securing the club entry to the GM Vauxhall Conference where they finished in top ten in their first two seasons.

In 87/8 they earned their FA Cup "giantkillers" reputation beating Aldershot and Peterborough before going out to an extra time goal in a replay at Middlesbrough. The following season they achieved that now immortal win over Coventry City.

At the end of that season Barrie Williams left the club and Keith Blunt returned for a second spell. In his second season he could not prevent the U's slipping out of the Conference last season, although they did win the Bob Lord (League) Cup. He left the club last summer and this season Alan Gane has taken control of the playing side.

In recent years several Sutton players have moved to the Football League, Efan Ekoku is now a regular at Bournemouth and earlier this season Andy Barnes joined Crystal Palace. In January of this year, Paul Rogers, capped six times for the England semi-pro side, joined Sheffield United in a £50,000 deal and has recently played against Liverpool, Manchester United and Sheffield Wednesday.

Introducing

Woking F.C. were formed in 1889 and played at Wheatsheaf Common and four other grounds before moving on to their present Kingfield Sports Ground in 1923. They started their competitive career in the West Surrey League and having won the Championship four times in 1895/6, 1897/8, 1904/5 and 1907/8, they were elected to the Isthmian League in 1911 and have been members continually ever since. Their highest placing was in 1956/7 when they finished as runners-up to Wycombe Wanderers despite scoring over 100 goals.

In 1980/81 they finished bottom of the Premier Division but survived relegation due to Enfield and Dagenham's leaving to join the Alliance Premier League, no teams being demoted that year.

They have been more successful in cup competitions however and in 1958 they won the last FA Amateur Cup Final to be televised live when they defeated Ilford 3-0 before a 70,000 crowd at Wembley. At this time "cardinals" forward line featured England Amateur Internationals, Charlie Mortimore, Geoff Hamm, Reg Stratton and Roy Littleton. Twenty years later Woking attracted national attention when reaching the Second Round of the FA Cup and holding Third Division promotion outfit Swansea City to a 2-2 draw at the Vetch Field. Sadly they lost the replay 5-3 after extra time before a capacity 6,500 crowd. The following season they reached the semi-finals of the F.A. Trophy, losing to the eventual winners, Dagenham. On the local front they have won the Surrey Senior Cup on five occasions and been runners-up thirteen times.

The early 1980's were traumatic times for the club as they were relegated from the Isthmian premier Division in 1983 to Division Two (South) in 1985. Their fortunes however, improved and after narrowly missing out on an immediate return to Division One, they made no mistake in 1986/7 when they scored 110 goals in their 38 League games. They were third in Division One in 1988 and in 1989 a home draw in their last game against Lewes, cost them promotion. Home form cost them dear as of their total 82 points 49 were collected away from Kingfield.

Woking began last season as favourites for a promotion spot and after two near misses they did not let down their ever growing band of supporters a third time. They were runners-up in the Vauxhall League First Division and so promoted with Wivenhoe Town.

Last season was dominated by the club's magnificent achievements in the F.A. Challenge Cup where they defeated West Bromwich Albion on the Midlands home Hawthorns pitch. Their reward for the win was be drawn at home to Everton, but as everyone knows, the game was switched to Goodison Park and in that magnificent stadium, the club lost by only a single Kevin Sheedy goal.

Trophies did however come their way and after defeating Kingstonian in the Surrey Senior Cup, they won the League Cup against Carshalton to qualify for this afternoon's match.

In the League itself they finally finished fourth in their first season back in the Premier Division after almost a decades absence. This season they were installed as favourites from day one of the season and this proved to be a shrewd move by the bookmakers as the club stormed to the top of the table and stayed there all season, making the championship little more than a formality. They also again reached the third round of the FA Cup before losing to Hereford United.

They will be formidable opposition next season in the GM Vauxhall Conference and they take with them the best wishes of all concerned with the Diadora Football League.
